LSCU Endorses Rutherford, Castor, and Donalds for Congress

TALLAHASSEE, FL – Representing Florida credit unions and their more than six million members, the League of Southeastern Credit Unions (LSCU) is proud to endorse John Rutherford (FL-05), Kathy Castor (FL-14), and Byron Donalds (FL-19) for Congress.

“We are proud to support these credit union advocates in their bids for re-election. These exemplary public servants have shown passion and commitment to bettering the lives of Floridians and serving as industry partners for credit unions across the state,” noted Patrick La Pine, CEO of LSCU & Affiliates.

With these endorsements, LSCU & Affiliates will support these candidates financially and through grassroots support. Over the next several months, credit unions and their members will have opportunities to speak with the candidates so they can make their own decisions as voters.

“We have personally met with these elected officials and have discussed priority issues that most impact our credit unions. Throughout these meetings we have worked to identify solutions that better serve communities across Florida and will continue to expand financial services to those who lack adequate access,” continued La Pine. “We are grateful to work with elected officials like Congressmen Rutherford, Castor, and Donalds who are committed to enhancing the path to financial success and independence for all Floridians.”
