The LSCU, CUNA, and League InfoSight Partner to Bring Easy Access to Compliance Solutions for Credit Unions

BIRMINGHAM, AL/TALLAHASSEE, FL, September 14, 2016, – Regulatory compliance can be time consuming and cumbersome, and the League of Southeastern Credit Unions & Affiliates (LSCU) knows that in order for credit unions to keep up with it all, a one-stop shop is the best solution.

The LSCU, Credit Union National Association (CUNA), and League InfoSight have partnered to provide DestinationCompliance™. This is an easy-to-access compliance solution portal, which combines all the support, insights, education, and tools credit unions need to meet compliance requirements. DestinationCompliance™ is currently available for use by the LSCU affiliated credit unions at no cost and can be accessed at <http://lscu.destinationcompliance.com/> and through the LSCU website.

The DestinationCompliance™ website simplifies three important aspects of credit union compliance and regulation:

- Advocacy — Helping credit unions advocate for change before regulations and laws are finalized
- Information — Presenting educational resources via blog, newsletter, and other online media
- Implementation Tools — Providing optional solutions for model policies, compliance management, and tracking tools

“As credit unions work to meet burdensome compliance requirements, the LSCU understands the need for immediate and updated access to resources and information.

DestinationCompliance™ will now provide solutions, tools and updates in one location for credit unions to better manage this process,” reported Patrick La Pine, LSCU president /CEO.

“Few things are as important today as high quality regulatory compliance expertise and information. We are fighting every day on Capitol Hill, state legislatures, and federal and state agencies to ease the compliance burden imposed by regulators,” said Jim Nussle, CUNA president/CEO. “Our compliance offerings provide information and insight, professional
